WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Lynn Freed, author of "Home Ground" (Summit Books, 1986), will be featured as part of The George Washington University's Spring 1988 Evening Reading Series. Freed was born in South Africa and holds a Ph.D. in English Literature from Columbia University. She received a fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts in 1986, and has also held fellowships from Yaddo and the MacDowell Colony.

Sponsored by George Washington and the Jenny McKean Moore Fund for Writers, the series is free and open to the public. Readings are held in the University's Marvin Center, 800 21st Street, N.W. A reception will follow.
